

Welcome

Greetings from Dr. Phillip "Flapp" Cockrell,

I would like to welcome you to Mississippi University for Women and the Office of Student Life. As a proud alumni of this outstanding institution, it is my hope that you will take advantage of all the wonderful and exciting opportunities it has to offer. The Office of Student Life offers a variety of programs and services that will enhance your educational career while here at MUW. It is my hope that you will join us for our 2011 Welcome Week programs. Welcome Week is an opportunity for MUW to officially welcome our new and returning students back to campus. During this week, there are a number of activities including academic and social learning opportunities that will help acclimate you to campus. Click here to view our 2011 Welcome Week Calendar. We are committed to engaging students in activities that will enhance leadership opportunities, personal and professional development, and critical thinking skills. It is our hope that you embrace the opportunities that are available for you. We look forward to working with you as you become a member of the "long blue line." If you have any questions, feel free to contact me directly at any at 662.329.7350 or pcockrell@sa.muw.edu

Mission

The Office of Student Life aspires to engage students in diverse learning opportunities that will be influential in their personal and professional development. Furthermore, the Office of Student Life is committed to assisting the university in retention efforts by implementing programs and services that will ultimately meet the expectations of every student.
